Fruits of the contemplative life for meditation and prayer

Passion Flowers in Bloom enlivens a love for our Lord through charming illustrations and touching poetry. Cultivating an eye for seeing God in the little things, Hailey Hall invites us into humble contemplation. Adults will find this collection a valuable tool for meditation. This little volume also can assist teachers and parents in helping children appreciate the gift of a religious life rooted in the Passion of Christ. Like dainty blossoms, Hailey's simple imagery expresses profound truth and beauty that calls us to deeper faith.

About The Author:

Hailey Kathleen Hall is a local St. Louis Catholic author. A native of Atlanta, GA and convert to Catholicism, she spent five years discerning a vocation to the religious life with the Passionist Nuns of St. Louis. It was during this time that Passion Flowers was first written. She now resides in Ballwin, MO with her husband, Dr. Michael Hall.
